

KENT GARDEN of ENGLAND

WHY YOU NEED TO VISIT KENT THIS YEAR...

2020 is such a big and busy year for Kent that we've renamed it
#KentTwenty!

With over 10 major anniversaries from the 150th anniversary of Charles Dickens death to the 80th anniversary of the Battle of Britain, to major events such as Becket 2020 and The 149th Open Championship, it is the year to bring your groups to Kent. Expect a warm welcome from the garden of England whilst you enjoy our enchanting castles, stunning gardens, rich heritage and endearing towns.

CALLING ALL HISTORY HEROES

2020 marks one of the most shocking crimes in European history, the 850th anniversary of the murder of Thomas Becket. To commemorate his murder - a moment which changed the course of history, there will be a range of events across the year in Canterbury, where after his death, he was made a saint and Canterbury Cathedral and became one of the most important sites for pilgrims within Europe.
